

Ethos and values

Exceptional Ideas Ltd.'s values are those of caring, mutual respect and understanding and achievement in a calm, caring environment. Young people, parents and staff are all encouraged to adopt areas of responsibility in the process and to reflect upon their contribution in bringing about change and achievement.

All those involved in the lives of each young person working with Exceptional Ideas Ltd is involved in the process, with their views and experiences, wishes and aspirations considered and their input considered to create a strong, cohesive team.

Exceptional Ideas Ltd.'s approach is based on anti-bullying, anti-drugs and parental engagement to develop a healthy and successful lifestyle through planning, reflection and development of each young person referred to Exceptional Ideas Ltd.